BACHELOR'S DEGREE

human services

The Bachelor's degree in Human Services develops practitioners who are educated, ethical thinkers who can apply their knowledge to serving others in various aspects of society, as leaders and managers.

Employment in Human Services professions is projected to grow 21% from 2015 to 2022, a rate much higher than the average growth for all occupations. This degree qualifies students for careers at social service agencies, the expanding adult day care system, group homes and residential care facilities, and accommodations for individuals who have special needs – all areas where qualified professionals are in high demand.

FEEL CONFIDENT AND COMFORTABLE

Monroe Advantages

ACCELERATED LEARNING

Most colleges have two semesters a year, but Monroe offers a unique third spring semester. It allows you to complete more credits annually, earn your degree faster and still have the entire month of August free. Combine accelerated learning with online and weekend classes and your classroom is now open, 24/7.

GENEROUS TRANSFER POLICY

Prospective students who previously attended an accredited college or university may transfer up to 30 applicable credits into an Associate degree program or 90 applicable credits into a Bachelor's degree program. Monroe also grants credit for relevant life experience and through college equivalency testing (CLEP).

AFFORDABLE PRIVATE EDUCATION

Monroe ranks as one of the most affordable private colleges in New York State. We know the cost of education is important. That's why we are committed to keeping our tuition at a level students can afford.

FINANCIAL AID AND FLEXIBLE PLANS

Federal and State aid are available to all those who qualify, including transfer students. In addition, Institutional Aid and Scholarships are available to students who have demonstrated superior academic achievement. Flexible payment plans are also offered.

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING

Our flex-schedule lets students combine day, evening and weekend classes to earn credits toward their degree. In addition, we offer courses online through our Distance Learning Program.
