MONROE COLLEGE

JOIN THE MUSTANGS MARCHING BAND

BE A PART OF THE MONROE MUSTANGS TRADITION

JOIN THE MUSTANGS MARCHING BAND

The Monroe College Mustangs are looking for motivated students to join and perform in its marching band. The band performs at select athletic events like football and basketball games, bringing excitement and energy to fans. Members of the band are involved in the local community which include playing and marching in city events like the New Rochelle Thanksgiving Day parade, exhibitions, and festivals. Monroe's athletic teams are highly competitive. Becoming a Mustangs is a great way to enrich your academic experience, and promote school spirit!

MARCHING BAND AUDITIONS

Brass (Trumpet, French Horn, Trombone, Baritone, Tuba) and Woodwind (Flute, Clarinet and Saxophone) musicians should prepare music that demonstrates their abilities. Your audition will include a minimum of one prepared song and major scales. Students interested in Drumline should be prepared to demonstrate all 40 drum rudiments. Auditions may be pre-recorded or conducted live. To schedule an audition or to ask questions, including suggested audition pieces, please email the Director of the Marching Band, Gary Hollander, at: ghollander@monroecollege.edu or call 914-740-6815.

DANCERS & CHEERLEADERS

The Monroe Cheerleaders and Dancers form an impressive presence at Monroe athletic events while providing members with a fun, and energetic team activity. They too participate in community events in both the Bronx and New Rochelle. Potential dancers and cheerleaders need related experience, but do not need to audition unless applying for a scholarship. At the time of admissions make the counselor aware of any interest in joining the squads.

SCHOLARSHIPS & FINANCIAL AID

There are a limited number of scholarships available to participants in the marching band. These scholarships are awarded based on academic ability and marching band auditions. In addition to Marching Band scholarships, band members may be eligible for academic scholarships or institutional grants as well as other federal or state grants. All applicants are encouraged to complete a FAFSA application.

APPLY TO MONROE COLLEGE

Students can apply online at monroecollege.edu. As part of your admissions package you will need to submit an essay at the end of your application.
